RETURN TO CIA DIRECTOR

1. The Peruvian government received an alert from Piura at 0130 hours on 22 April 1949. Military guards were immediately placed at all telephone and telegraph centers in the Piura-Lambayeque area. A similar alert was received at 2215 hours from Cajamarca.
2. Full suspension of constitutional guarantees was decreed 23 April.
3. The tension in Lima increased during the afternoon because of the curfew imposed in conjunction with the suspension of constitutional guarantees, which had been decreed with no announcement of reasons.
4. The United Press office in Lima received rumors of simultaneous pro-Bustamante movements led by General Federico Hurtado from the south and General Armando Revoredo from the north.
5. By 23 April, no confirmation had been received of any overtly attempted uprising anywhere outside of Lima.
